ONE CENT.

KIND OLD SANTA CLAUS!

What "The Ledger's" Little Friends Want the Jolly Old Chap to Bring Them Christmas.

BUNTING THE STOCKINGS

THE LEDGER has promised to be the mediator between its little friends and Santa Claus and all communications sent to this office will find their way to the old fellow, and the wants of the little folks will be filled in due time. Some days we may be crowded for space; so do not get impatient if your letter is delayed a day or so, for it will be attended to as soon as

SHANNON, Ky.. Dec. 12th, 1896.

Dear Santy Clause: I am a little boy 9 years old. I live near Shannon, just back of my grandfather's house; you can easily find the way. I sleep up stairs in mama's and papa's room this winter. I want some candy and bananas, peanuts, reasons, oranges, figs, shot for my gun that you brought me last Christmas, a stery book, a spelling book, a pair of skates if you think I am big enough; if not I will want another year. I want a lot of fire-crackers and a lot of Romas candles and a basket of grapes. I am yoff little boy.

JAMES FORESTER GAULT.

Please don't forget to bring my papa a pair of peari cuff buttons.

SHANNON, Kv., Dec. 14th, 1896.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy 7 years old. I live just back of Grandfather Gauit's; you can easily find the way. I sleep up stairs in mother's and father's room this winter. I have a bro'ber older than myself. I am the youngest of mother's children. I want a gur, some candy, oranges, bananas. ngs. apples, a basket of grapes, story book, slate, frecrackers, Roman candles, a kaife-my old one won't cut-and a cap for my papa. I will go to bed early and shut my eyes: I won't look, indeed I won't. I am your little boy.

CHARLIE DEGARMO GAULT.

MAYBVILLE WEATHER.

That We May Expect For the Year

Twenty-four Haurs.

White streamer-FAIR

Blue-BAIN OF SNOW!

The above forecasts are made for a

Lamps, new styles and at prices to Companies are organizing in every part

The personal estate of the late Mrs

of the United States for service in Cubs.

Mary Clinger consists of $474 50 in cash

For the accommodation of Holiday pa trons, Messrs. Browning & Co. will keep their store open 'every evening next

Diamond Rings, Eardrops, Pendants,

Scarf Pins, Lace Pins make an acceptable

Xmas present, and having a large stock of them I have made the greatest cut on these goods that has ever been made. Call and see them. P. J. Murphy, the Jeweler.

One good friend in the "State of Lewis" has availed himself of our sassafras and 'sang offer; and he has our thanks for $1 25 worth of sweet 'taters which have been applied on account

Yum, yum! We can now do the General

You might as well

try to shampoo ar

elephant with a thimbleful of soap-sads as attempt to do business without advertising in "The Sugar is an ancient luxury. The Chinese have been eating it for at least 8,000

Mrs. Mattie Wheelis was fined $50 at Postmaster Chenoweth is now occupy-

Miss Bessie Martin, Teacher of the Sixth Ward Public School, lost a hand some gold watch yesterday afternoon;

but it was fortunately found by Mr. Mc-

John Seward, sentenced to imprison-

Donald and returned to her.

Paducah for flourishing a revolver in a Ledger."

banquet on the savory tubers

please at Schatzmann's, Market street.

we'll see

at John O'Keefe's.

TUB LEDIERR'S

With Black ABOVE-'twill WARE'

If Black's HENRATS-COLDER'LWIL

Unless Black's shown-no change

Please don't forget my Aunt B.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. W. H. Wadsworth went to Paris yester

Mrs. Frank Armstrong is the guest of rela tives at Millersburg.

Hop. F. Baker Trussell of Tollesboro was a visitor to the city yesterday. Dr. James Taylor is in from Indiana visiting his former home at Rectorville.

Miss Lizzie Steele Andrews of Fiemingsburg is the guest of Mrs. Louis January.

Miss Elizabeth Power returned yesterday after a month's stay in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hall were guests

Tuesday of the Gibson House, Cincinnati.

Hon. A. M. J. Cochran was in attendance at the Federal Court at Covington yesterday.

Miss Cordelia Parsons of Rectorville is visit-Ing the family of Mr. James Irvine at Wash-

Miss Estene R. Paddock of West Farmington, O., is the guest of Miss Mary Daulton of Misses Christine and Gary Milam have returned from a visit to their sister, Mrs. H. H.

West Second street

Philips, at Millersburg.

Misses Field and Anna Leggett and Mr. C. M. Torrence of Ripley were the guests of Miss Martha Stevenson Tuesday night.

Miss Ida May Procter, daughter of Dr. Procter of Elizaville, is visiting her cousin.

Mr. Harry Richardson of the Sixth Ward, Miss Jessie Kreiner, who has been the pleasant guest of Mr. and Mre. Charles J. Collins, left for Paris Tuesday, much to the regret of her many friends. Mr. Thomas Leyland and his son, Mr. Samuel Leyland, both of Boston, came yesterday on the 1:36 Fiyer for a brief visit to Mr. James Smith and other friends here. It was Mr.

Samuel Leyland's first visit to Maysville in twelve years. They will leave for the East at La If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 83, and send it in.

Have you seen the nice line of Queensware at Schatzmann's, Market street.

See the most wonderful Heating Stove of this age. Just out. At W. F. Power's.

Everything nice in the Jewelry line at McCartheyis. Don't fall to see Henry W. Ray's stock adorned United States paper money is of Xmas goods; also a complete line of that of Martha Washington. fancy and tollet articles.

Buy your Xmas presents at home is the way to make times better. Let us show you our stock of cut and pressed glass bettles, pocket-books, combs and brushes, perfumes, tollet water, etc.

THOMAS & CHENOWETH, Druggiat.

Miss Bertha Ort was yesterday the vic- in the Pearl Bryan case, claims to have tim of an ante-Santa Claus surprise. An recognized in Harry Washburn, a prisunusually large box was unloaded in oner in the Newport Jall, Erastus Cumfront of the family residence, and when mins, who was given a life sentence for the lid was removed a magnificent plane murder in Bracker county. But John dropped out. It was a Christman present bas proven himself such a Har that no from her father, Chief of Police Ort.

Mrs. Charles A. Marshall has about recovered from her recent severe indispo

Dr. Leroy Smith, a well known young physician of Millersburg, died Saturday

The little son of Mr. William R. Gill is very much better, and is now thought to be out of danger.

Mrs. Elizabeth Curtis died at the home monia, aged 79 years.

Orie Wells of Sardis is sick with typhold fever at the residence of B. F. Herriott of Sharpsburg.

Mr. Michael Kain, formerly a resident of this city and a brother of Mr. John Kain, died recently at Cairo, Ill.

J. Foster Barbour, named in the will has qualified as Executor of the late Mrs. Mary Clinger, with E. Whitaker surety.

Mrs. Lucretia Cartmell, widow of the late Dr. S. M. Cartmell, has been granted a pension of $8 a month, beginning October 20th, 1896.

Charles B. Pearce, Jr., John Duley and Charles D. Pearce have been appointed to appraise the personalty of the late Mrs. Mary Clinger.

John M. and James Hutsell, prominent stock traders and farmers, residing near Paris, assigned to C. R. Turner of Millersburg, with assets, $3,370 and liabilities

Taylor Bros. at Washington will sell from now until January 1st 22 pounds of granulated sugar for $1 and 6 pounds Arbuckle's coffee for $1, and all other goods at cost; strictly cash.

Delinquent City Taxes. The delinquent tax list of the city is now in my hands for collection. Those indebted are kindly requested to call and settle, and avoid additional cost or sale D. P. OBT. Chief of Police.

FRANK R. PHISTER.

His Untimely Death at Washington City Yesterday Morning.

THE LEDGER yesterday made brief mention of the death of Mr. Frank R. Phister at Washington City. Best of all kinds of Fruit for fruit cake

The telegram conveying the sad news gave no particulars.

his own life by shooting himself in the Acts not by partial but by general laws; It now develops that Mr. Phister took right temple at his boarding-house in the Capital, and that death was instantane

Frank R. Phister was a son of the late As much eternal springs and cloudless skies As men forever temperate, calm and wise. It plagues or earthquakes break not beaven's in 1862, and was consequently 34 years of

After acquiring a fine education, he was successfully engaged in the book and Or turns young Ammon loose to scourge man-kind? stationery business here, but a few years later removed to Decatur, Ala., where he was connected with a bank. In 1888 that Southern city was stricken with yellow fever, and it was here that Mr. Phister proved a hero. He refused to leave his post to escape the pestilence, saying he had cast his lot there and would share Francis Marian act and give our guests a the fate of his fellows. Ever ready to lend assistance to those who were stricken, he himself finally fell victim to the scourge. After long suffering he recovered; but it was all too plain that the disease had left its lasting impressthat it had affected his brain.

Fellowing this he went to Oklahoma with his Decatur employers, and from there he went to Chicago to accept a place with the Committee of Awards at the World's Fair. When the Fair closed he took a place in the Indian Bureau of the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, and this he was filling at the time of his

Frank Phiater needs no fulsome eulogy every one his friend; and it may with truth be written that his life was finally given as a sacrifice to those whom he reng the handsome residence No. 221 West fused to desert when pestilence possessed his fair Southern home. The only weman's face that has ever > left yesterday noon for Washington, to bring the remains to this city, and the funeral will, probably take place Saturday from the residence of his mother, Mrs. Jane Phister, No. 15 West Third ment in the Kentucky Pen. for perjury had established his future home.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Report of District No. 30, Creek, and Plumville.

This is historic territory, having been the scene of the most remarkable and destructive fleod ever known in this re gion. As we drove along the shere of Bull Creek in October it was difficult to of her son near Slickaway, O., of pneu- realize that the dry, rocky bed before us was the ground work of such destruction as occurred on that dark and deleful Thursday night, June 12th, 1890, in which three innocent persons were launched into eternity. During that night a cloud burst dashed its flood suddenly into the creek, which forms the natural drainage for the water shed which overhangs it for several miles. The water came rush ing like a mighty cataract-"Rising and leaping, Sinking and creeping,

Swelling and sweeping,
Showering and springing,
Flying and flinging,
Writing and wringing,
Eddying and whisking,
Sporting and twisting,
Turning and twisting
Around and around
With endless rebound;
Smiting and fighting. With endless rebound; Smiting and fighting, Confounding, astounding, Dizzying and deafening The ear with its sound.
Collecting, projecting,
Receding and speeding,
And shocking and rocking.
And darting and parting,
And threading and spreading,
And bitting and splitting,
And bitting and splitting,
And shaking and quaking,
And spouring and roaring,
And waving and raving,
And waving and raving,
And crossing and tossing,
And graying and struggling,
And heaving and struggling,
And moaning and groaning,
And quivering and shivering, The ear with its sound And quivering and shivering,
And hurrying and skurrying,
And thunde ing and floundering,
bividing and gliding,
And sliding and driving,
And riving and striving, And thumping and plumping, And bumping and jumping, And dashing and flashins, And splashing and clashing."

Tearing houses with slumbering, unsus pecting dwellers loose from their founda tions and floating them out to the great tide upon which these human souls were drifted into eternity. Strange and mysterious that forces of nature, so essential to preservation of human life, can prove to be such engines of devastation and destruc-

"But errs not Nature from its gracious end From burning suns when livid deaths de-cer When earthquakes swallow or when tempests

The exceptions few; some change since al began; And what created perfect? Why, then, man? if the great end be numan happiness, Then Nature deviates; had can man do less? As much that end a constant course require Of showers and sunshine, as of man's desires design,

Why then a Borgia or a Catiline?
Who knows but He whose band the lightning forms, heaves old ocean and who wings the Pours fierce ambition into a Casar's mind, From pride, from pride our very reasoning springs; Account for moral as for natural things, Why charge we heaven in those, in these quit? In both, to reason right is to submit." Such were the thoughts that passed through the mind of the Superintendent as on this lovely, peaceful morning he wended his way to visit School No. 36, and meets a sight that gladdens his eyes when he pulls up before an elegant building which has displaced the old rickety shanty that stood for so many years like a forlorn and ragged beggar by the

The Trustees for this District are Matthew Hoffman, Nick Ring and Lewis

They have done good work in procuring such a fine schoolhouse, 24×36 feet, with a belfry and bell, supplied with furniture, blackboards, etc., of the most modern style. The structure is worthy of highest commendation and was built by honest George Harding, whose name is a guarantee for good, honest work.

Mr. J. H. Hicks is the teacher and conat our hands. His cheery nature, his ducts his school in a manner satisfactory manly manner, his genial good-will, made to all concerned. There is a noticeable improvement in the appearance of the scholar, as is always the case when they find comfortable and neat surroundings.

The next District directly South is Plumville, where good clever people are more numerous than the plums, if you His brother, Judge Thomas R. Phister, do not count profane effspring, some times included in the plum family.

> The Trustees of this District, No. 45, are A. J. Yancey, Steven Valentine and Ell Frame.

They have made considerable improvements in their schoolhouse within a year Deceased was formerly a member of and its appearance is much improved. Ringgold Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Lime- One very important addition is a good stone Lodge, K. P., of this city, but had cistern, which furnishes a plentiful supwithdrawn his membership in both bedies ply of water for the thirsty scholars and placed it in Washington, where he School children are proverbially fund of water, and if the spring is half a mile Bright Things for Bright People. Diamonds, for Instance.

We are showing for the Holidays some very beautiful things in this line, --- Diamond Pendants, Ear Rings, Kings for the fingers set with many gem combinations, Solitaire Rings, --- all sizes at astonishingly low prices.

Will you call and see them?

BALLENGER, Jeweler.

distant from the schoolhouse volunteers are always to be found who will fetch a bucket of water from the spring. They never fail to arrive with the bucket.

That veteran teacher, W. T. Pollitt, has charge of this school a second time, and he gives, as he has always done, excellent satisfaction.

The scholars gave evidence of careful raining. They present a very neat appearance and manifest deep interest in their studies

Later I shall endeavor to give my impression of Springdale and Rectorville G. W. BLATTERMAN, Superintendent Public Schools Mason

The congregation of the Christian Church at Washington will make some immediate improvements in the interior of their Church. They are also contemplating building a parsonage.

A number of Fleming people subscribed for stock in the United States Building Association of Louisville, and now they are mourning because one of the officers has made way with $12,000 of the Company's cash. This moves The Gazette to remark that it is always best to patronize home institutions.

ANNUAL RECEPTION.

Maysville Commandery Will Entertain Monday Evening, December 28th.

Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T. will receive and entertain on the evening of Monday, December 28th.

It is needless to say that the reputation of Maysville Commandery as an enterainer will not be permitted to suffer on this occasion, and that all who lend their presence will partake of an evening's social enjoyment.

A splendid Orchestra has been engaged. giving assurance that good music will constitute an important feature of the

The young ladies and gentlemen of Washington are preparing for a delightful entertainment during the approaching holiday season.

A citizen of Tacoma, Wash., wants an amendment to the Constitution of that stare exempting from taxation all homesteads to the value of $2,500.

C. D. Russell & Co. have placed on a special sale the finest line of Lamps ever brought to this city, and they're cheap too. See their advertisement on Fourth page, and then go down and "Tell them that you saw it in THE LEDGER."

BOYS' & YOUTHS' --- Calf -Ma Shoes

Both the Methedist and Presbyterian Sunday-schools at Washington will give entertainments to their schools the coming holiday season.

J. HENRY PECOR.

Mrs. Ellen Goodman of near Millers burg has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Eliza Larkin, at Washington this week. Her husband, formerly of this county, has sold his place near Millersburg and will go to Lexington to make his home.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by tocal applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only ... one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachain Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbiing sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness to the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous sur-

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh,) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure Send for circulars, free F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75e. .

and vicinity, bought for each at rock bottom prices. Therefore, I am in condition to offer inducements in every article with no fear of successful competition. It is impossible for me to give prices on every article I handle. This paper would not bold the list. It is sufficient to say that I cannot be undersold by anyone, and that I allow no one to handle better goods than I do. To the young folks I give a few prices:

4 hs best New York Mixed Candy... 4 hs best Circinnati Mixed Candy... 4 hs best Phonix Mixed Candy... 4 hs best Home-Made Mixed Candy... 4 hs best Pure Stock Candy...

And all other kinds of Candies and Nuts at proportionately low prices.

SPECIAL in FIREWORKS

In addition my stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries, Canned Geods, a new. full and complete, and at prices that cannot be successfully met. In headquarters for Poultry, Game. Oysters, Colery, Cranberries, Apples. Or Bananas, Figs, Baisins, Dates, Citron, Curraars and all kinds of Fruits, Bu Pancake Fleur, Whole Wheat Flour, Graham Flour, Pure Maple Syrup, New &c., &c., in fact, everything good to cat and of the very best. And don't ferguin Flour is the best and that my fliended Coffee has no equal. I run two a and will deliver all goods sold promptly. Come in and make my house you you are always welcome.